Maybe you already have your live audition schedule set but want more guidance about presenting your best self at in-person auditions and interviews?

Have no fear! You can purchase additional lesson add-ons for all of your audition prep needs! Choose from one 60-minute session, four, or eight to make sure you feel confident and ready for anything this audition season.

About Nile

As New England's premiere actor headshot photographer, Nile combines his passion for performing and his facility with art and technology to collaborate with his subjects, creating authentic and compelling portraits for actors and everyone else. He has created headshots for thousands of people in his studios, and has both performed with and taken photographs for the majority of professional theatres in the Northeast. Nile is deeply committed to elevating the stories of his fellow artists through his work, and is grateful every day that he's found such a fun and fulfilling way to do so.
